PROFESSIONAL BIO

Kristy is an Astrologer and Life Strategist from the Gold Coast. Her career started in Learning and Development in the beauty industry, working for the likes of Clinique and global beauty giant Sephora. A passion for developing people and brands blossomed into a 10-year career, but Kristy was perpetually curious about astrology - she was 'that girl' in the office who was always asking everyone for their star signs. In 2018, she found herself sitting in front of an award-winning Astrologer who became her mentor, and instantly fell in love with the stars and how they can help you understand more about yourself to make conscious decisions. Four years on, Kristy has become one of Australia's leading Astrologers. Through her signature formula, Astrostrategy®, Kristy combines mystical insights with practical tools to dismantle the uncertainty that's been holding you back. When she's not stargazing, you'll find her at the beach, fantasy novel and green juice in hand.
